

Summer Interns

The Office of New Student & Transition Programs (NSTP) fosters the successful transition and engagement of new and continuing students into the Georgia Tech community. New students (including first-year, transfer, international, & exchange students) are provided a holistic introduction to the university, connection to the incoming and current students, and institutional support to their development and success during their first year.

Interns in the Office of New Student & Transition Programs will be an integral part of the professional staff in NSTP, a unit of the Division of Student Life. Individuals in this position will truly leave their experience with a comprehensive understanding of Orientation, Transition, & Retention Programs. The NODA interns will not only have the opportunity to work closely with one another, they will have the opportunity to interact with the entire office team, including the Assistant Dean of Students/Director, the Assistant Director, the Coordinators, and the Administrative Professional. Each position will also play a role in the advising of students charged with assisting each orientation program.
